We provide your information to third parties, including:

- Third party service providers for the servicing purposes described above – We do not authorize our service providers to use or disclose the personal information for their own marketing or other purposes. We engage service providers pursuant to a written agreement which requires them to protect personal information with equivalent safeguards that we would use. Our service providers may be located in Canada or other jurisdictions or countries and may disclose information in response to valid demands or requests from governments, regulators, courts and law enforcement authorities in those jurisdictions or countries in accordance with the applicable law in that jurisdiction or country. For more information on our information sharing practices, please contact our Privacy Officer.
- To governments, government agencies, regulators, including self-regulatory authorities, when required or permitted to do so by law, including in response to a search warrant, court order, or other demand or inquiry which we believe to be valid.
- To your financial advisor and their dealership where necessary to administer and service your account.
- To your legal representatives and/or with other third parties at your direction for the purposes which you specify at the time of the direction.
- To financial institutions, securities dealers and mutual fund companies where necessary to administer and service your account.
- To protect our interests, we may disclose information to any person or organization, including an investigative body, in order to prevent, detect or suppress, financial abuse, fraud, criminal activity, protect our assets and interests, or manage or settle any actual or potential loss or in the case of a breach of agreement or contravention of law.
- We may also disclose information to help us collect a debt owed to us.
- In the event of a transfer of a business, we may buy or sell a business (or evaluate those transactions) which would result in certain personal information forming business assets that would be purchased or sold as part of a transfer.
- We may transfer personal information as part of a corporate reorganization or other change in corporate control.
- In other situations where we have your consent, for instance, sharing your information with a joint account holder.

Information collected will be communicated outside of Quebec, both within Canada and other jurisdictions or countries and we may disclose information in response to valid demands or requests from governments, regulators, courts and law enforcement authorities in those jurisdictions or countries in accordance with the applicable law in that jurisdiction or country.

Protecting information

We maintain appropriate physical, electronic, technological, procedural, and organizational safeguards to protect against unauthorized access, disclosure, copying, use or modification, theft, misuse, or loss of your personal information in our custody or control. These safeguards are appropriate to the sensitivity of the information, the purposes for which it is used, the quantity and distribution of the personal information and the medium on which we (or our service providers) store it. We limit access to your personal information to the employees and agents who require it for the purposes of their role. Your personal information is only used for the purposes for which it was collected or where permitted by law. We store personal information for as long as is necessary to achieve the purposes for which it was collected or in accordance with applicable law.

Accessing or correcting information

We are committed to being transparent and providing you with choices about how your information is used. You may inform us of your preferences by registering for our client web portal [Investor Online] online at www.ci.com and accessing the Privacy Preferences page. If you are unable to register online, you may also contact our client services via phone a 1-800-268-9374 or by e-mail to service@ci.com.

To correct or access your information, we encourage you to contact our Client Services department, access our Online web portal or consult your periodic statements. However, you do have the right to access and correct your personal information, or to find out to whom we have disclosed it. To make a formal request for access or correction, please send a written request addressed to the Privacy Officer, 15 York Street, 4th Floor, Toronto, ON, M5J 0A3. Please include your full name, address, telephone number, and account number(s) on all correspondence to us and provide enough detail to allow us to identify the information you want to access or correct.

Revoking consent

You may withdraw your consent for the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information at any time by forwarding a written request to the Privacy Officer. Please include your full name, address, telephone number and account number(s) on any correspondence to us. However, there are certain times when you may not withhold or revoke your consent including certain legal, regulatory, or contractual requirements. We must receive reasonable notice of your request in order to honour your consent withdrawal. Your decision to withhold or revoke your consent may limit the products and services that we may provide to you and may require you to close your accounts with us.
