RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Fund's net assets increased by $28.3 million to $549.0 million from March 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024. The Fund had net redemptions of $14.3 million for the period. The portfolio's performance increased assets by $54.0 million. The Fund paid distributions totalling $11.4 million. Series A units returned 10.5% after fees and expenses for the six-month period ended September 30, 2024. Over the same time period, the Fund's benchmark returned 13.4%. The benchmark is the MSCI World Core Infrastructure Index (NTR) (the Benchmark or the Index).

The performance of the Fund's other Series is substantially similar to that of Series A units, except for differences in the structure of fees and expenses. For the returns of the Fund's other Series, please refer to the "Past Performance" section.

The global economy, led by the United States, continued to record steady growth over the period. Although growth moderated, forecasters' fears of a recession were not realized. Within developed economies, inflation continued to decline and as a result, central banks in Canada, Europe and the United States cut interest rates. These interest rate cuts produced a growing belief that cheaper borrowing for governments, companies and individuals would provide some stimulus to the economy and create a "soft landing" where slowing economic growth is managed well and a recession is avoided.

Geopolitical fears continued to create concern, with Middle East tensions, the U.S. presidential election, the Ukraine-Russia war and China's relationship with Taiwan each contributing to volatility and unease. The energy market was particularly impacted by the balance between worries around supply due to geopolitical factors and worries around demand from global slowing. Within infrastructure, the beginning of global interest rate cuts produced higher valuations for interest rate-sensitive sectors, and utilities in particular. Forecasts that electricity demand would increase from artificial intelligence and data centres provided further impetus for future corporate earnings expectations.

The Fund underperformed its benchmark for the period. Currency hedging detracted from the Fund's performance due to the Canadian dollar's appreciation, particularly against the euro. Underweight allocations to the telecommunications infrastructure industry group and the utilities sector detracted from the Fund's performance. A small position in Tidewater Midstream and Infrastructure Ltd. detracted from the Fund's performance on a declining outlook for liquidity amid a weak market for low carbon fuel standards. A position in Vinci SA also detracted from the Fund's performance because of tax increases proposed by the French government, with particular focus on concession holders within the country.

Stock selection within the utilities sector contributed to the Fund's performance, as did the Fund's Canadian holdings. A position in Entergy Corp. contributed to the Fund's performance as the company's stock rebounded on solid earnings, expectations that rate-base growth should continue via industrial development and a generally favourable backdrop for the utilities sector. A holding in TransAlta Corp. also contributed to the Fund's performance, as the company's stock rebounded from an extremely low valuation after the company posted strong second-quarter 2024 earnings, gaining further on optimism around expansion opportunities for the company.

We added to the Fund a new position in Fortum OYJ based on the company's reasonable valuation and position in nuclear and hydro generation, which seem likely to benefit from increasing European power prices along with a preference for these carbon-free generation sources.

Existing positions in Auckland International Airport Ltd. and CSX Corp. were increased in the Fund. Auckland International Airport Ltd. had an equity issuance to fund capacity expansion. The Fund's position in CSX Corp. was increased on the expectation that U.S. goods demand would remain resilient, providing support for earnings. We also noted the substantial valuation discount that CSX Corp. was trading at relative to other North American railroads.

A holding in Tidewater Midstream and Infrastructure Ltd. was eliminated from the Fund. The Fund's position in Transurban Group was reduced amid concerns around traffic and dividend growth as well as uncertainty related to potential tolling regulation in New South Wales, Australia.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

We remain positive on global financial markets, believing that economies will likely be able to avoid severe recession. While recent challenges around inflation and interest rates have impacted many economies, fiscal, economic and monetary supports are likely to continue.

Management Report of Fund Performance for the period/year ended September 30, 2024

The infrastructure sector, trading at a substantial relative discount to other major equity markets, seems particularly well suited to benefit from a period of declining interest rates, while earnings growth for the companies' required services remains resilient and positive.

The utilities sector allocation within the Fund has been increased, with a preference for companies that offer greater exposure to power price increases. Between an increase in demand for electricity and a much higher incentive price needed for additional capacity to be built, we believe that electricity prices will be headed higher in the near term.

Energy infrastructure has provided excellent returns from earnings growth and valuation expansion, and although we remain positive on the sector, valuation increases seem likely to moderate. Thus, the Fund's overweight allocation to the sector has been reduced.

Risk rating

Effective June 25, 2024, the risk rating for the Fund changed from "Low-to-Medium" to "Medium". This change is the result of an annual review to comply with the methodology mandated by the Canadian Securities Administrators and is not the result of any changes to investment objective, strategies or management of the Fund.

<sup>(2)</sup> Management expense ratio is calculated based on expenses charged to the Fund (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets for the period/year, including the Fund's proportionate share of any underlying fund(s) expenses, if applicable. The Effective HST tax rate is calculated using the attribution percentage for each province based on unitholder residency and can be different from 13%.

<sup>(4)</sup> The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the fiscal period/year. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period/year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period/year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period/year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a higher turnover rate and the performance of a Fund. Portfolio turnover rate is calculated by dividing the lesser of the cost of purchases and the proceeds of sales of portfolio securities for the period/year, and excluding cash and short-term investments maturing in less than one year, and before assets acquired from a merger, if applicable, by the average of the monthly fair value of investments during the period/year.
