RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Fund's net assets increased by $0.8 million to $8.1 million from March 31, 2021 to September 30, 2021. The portfolio's performance increased assets by $0.8 million. Series A shares returned 11.0% after fees and expenses for the six-month period ended September 30, 2021. Over the same time period, the Fund's benchmark returned 9.2%. The benchmark is a combination of the S&P/TSX Composite Total Return Index - 70% and the S&P 500 Total Return Index - 30% (the Benchmark or the Index).

The performance of the Fund's other Series is substantially similar to that of Series A shares, except for differences in the structure of fees and expenses. For the returns of the Fund's other Series, please refer to the "Past Performance" section.

The following commentary pertains to the results of operations of the CI Canadian All Cap Equity Income Fund (the Underlying Fund).

There was continued economic reopening across Canada, which drove a recovery in consumer demand in travel, hospitality, entertainment and retail. Rising raw material costs and labour shortages disrupted supply chains and drove higher-than-anticipated inflation. The Bank of Canada signalled a winding down of monetary stimulus measures. An increase in the price of crude oil positively impacted profits in the Canadian energy sector.

The Underlying Fund outperformed its benchmark for the period. Security selection in the financials and information technology sectors contributed to the Underlying Fund's performance. Top individual contributors to the Underlying Fund's performance included Alphabet Inc. and Colliers International Group Inc. Alphabet Inc. outperformed because of increased demand for online advertising and cloud services. We continue to invest in the company because of the ongoing shift in advertising spending towards digital channels and growing device usage, as well as its investments in emerging technologies, including self-driving vehicle systems. Colliers International Group Inc. outperformed because of elevated demand for real estate transaction services and a successful round of fundraising for its investment management practice. We continue to like the company because of its earnings stability, recurring service revenue, and potential upside from future and recent acquisitions.

Security selection within the industrials sector and exposure to the energy sector detracted from the Underlying Fund's performance. The largest individual detractors from the Underlying Fund's performance were Element Fleet Management Corp. and Canadian Pacific Railway Ltd. Element Fleet Management Corp. was negatively impacted by lower demand from automotive customers related to a shortage of semiconductors and other inputs. We continue to invest in the company because of its leading market share, strong customer retention rates and long-term contracts with large enterprise customers. Canadian Pacific Railway Ltd.'s shares declined amid supply chain disruptions that reduced automotive and other industrial volumes, reduced grain production forecasts, and wildfires in Western Canada and the United States. We remain investors in the company because of our confidence in the strategic fit of its recent merger with Kansas City Southern, strong management team and recovering demand across its end markets.

We added a new position in Enbridge Inc., which owns and operates a large network of pipelines for the transportation of crude oil, natural gas and other liquids. We added the holding because of the recovery in crude oil and natural gas prices and from investor optimism in the company's investments in renewable energy assets. We also invested to maintain the Underlying Fund's exposure to the energy sector and to benefit from future increases in energy prices. An existing holding in Brookfield Renewable Partners L.P. was increased to raise the Underlying Fund's exposure to the long-term shift away from fossil fuels and towards renewable energy.

WELL Health Technologies Corp. was eliminated from the Underlying Fund over valuation concerns and a slowdown in growth following a period of repaid expansion during the pandemic. Tricon Residential Inc. was trimmed to reduce the Underlying Fund's exposure to the real estate sector.

Overall, the Fund outperformed its benchmark for the period.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

We expect volatility to remain elevated as a result of the disruptive impact of the COVID-19 delta variant on supply chains and production in foreign markets. We expect higher interest rates and a reduction in quantitative easing to negatively impact business investment as well as equity, fixed income and real estate prices. The impact of inflation should add to volatility because it remains unknown whether or not it will persist beyond this period. To mitigate this risk, we prefer businesses with pricing power.

The Underlying Fund holds companies that are better able to endure any economic environment and businesses with some short-term challenges that are trading at prices well below intrinsic value. We continue to place an emphasis on balance sheet resilience and liquidity, which are critical to allow businesses to survive in an uncertain macroeconomic environment. We favour businesses with resilient supply chains that are able to avoid the negative impact of higher input costs by passing them on to customers.

Risk rating

Effective June 24, 2021, the risk rating for the Fund changed from "Low-to-Medium" to "Medium". This change is the result of an annual review to comply with the methodology mandated by the Canadian Securities Administrators and is not the result of any changes to investment objective, strategies or management of the Fund.

(1) This information is derived from the Fund's semi-annual and annual financial statements.

(2) Management expense ratio is calculated based on expenses charged to the Fund (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets for the period, including the Fund's proportionate share of any underlying fund(s) expenses, if applicable. The Effective HST tax rate is calculated using the attribution percentage for each province based on shareholder residency and can be different from 13%.

(3) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period, including the Fund's proportionate share of such expenses of any underlying fund(s), if applicable.

(4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the fiscal period. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a higher turnover rate and the performance of a Fund. Portfolio turnover rate is calculated by dividing the lesser of the cost of purchases and the proceeds of sales of portfolio securities for the period, and excluding cash and short-term investments maturing in less than one year, and before assets acquired from a merger, if applicable, by the average of the monthly fair value of investments during the period.

(5) This information is provided for the period ended September 30, 2021 and the years ended March 31.
