RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Fund's net assets decreased by $0.9 million to $39.4 million from March 31, 2023 to September 30, 2023. The Fund had net redemptions of $2.6 million during the period. The portfolio's performance increased assets by $1.7 million. Series A shares returned 3.7% after fees and expenses for the six-month period ended September 30, 2023. Over the same time period, the Fund's benchmark returned 2.2%. The benchmark is the ICE BofA U.S. High Yield Total Return Index (USD) (the Benchmark or the Index).

The performance of the Fund's other Series is substantially similar to that of Series A shares, except for differences in the structure of fees and expenses. For the returns of the Fund's other Series, please refer to the "Past Performance" section.

The following commentary pertains to the results of operations of the CI High Yield Bond Fund (the Underlying Fund).

The U.S. Federal Reserve Board and Bank of Canada surprised the market with two to three more interest rates hikes than had been anticipated a year ago. The persistent rise in government bond yields throughout the period pushed high-yield bond prices lower. Yet, developed market yield curves steepened, even as spreads tightened 20 basis points (bps) to 160 bps in Canadian investment-grade bonds and 58 bps in U.S. high-yield bonds. The threat of a U.S. regional banking crisis overhung the market in the first quarter of 2023 but abated over the summer. However, public market issuance was light as the inclination to refinance at higher interest rates was low and some companies focused on debt reduction. Inflation seemed to moderate, manufacturing modestly contracted and consumers turned more cautious during the period.

The Underlying Fund outperformed its benchmark for the period. Security selection contributed to the Underlying Fund's performance, as did a shorter duration (interest rate sensitivity) than the benchmark. A position in an American Airlines Group Inc. (term loan secured overnight financing rate +475 basis points, due 2028), which is secured by its AAdvantage loyalty program contributed to the Underlying Fund's performance given its higher yield and lower volatility as reference rates rose. The Underlying Fund's holding in a payment-in-kind toggle bond issued by Husky Injection Molding Systems Ltd. (13% due 2025) was a positive contributor to performance as improving operations increased the likelihood of an early refinancing.

Exposure to Canadian preferred shares and the more interest-rate-sensitive investment-grade bonds detracted from the Underlying Fund's performance. Canadian preferred share prices fell, even on rate-reset and fixed-floating instruments, as interest rates rose. Even as retail investors seemed to abandon this asset class and the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions prefers bank risk-absorbing capital to be structured differently, we continue to find compelling value in this space. We were a little early extending into longer-duration bonds, and the Underlying Fund's new position in Ford Motor Co. 4.75% Jan. 15, 2043 bonds, which was added to capture an eventual upgrade to investment-grade bonds, detracted from the Underlying Fund's performance as yields rose.

We added to the Underlying Fund a new BBB-rated bond, Paramount Global 4.375% due 2043, as interest rates rose. We believe a stagnant stock price should be the catalyst for credit improvement. A new secured bond position in New Fortress Energy Inc. 6.5% due 2026, was added to the Underlying Fund. The company is in the clean energy transition space, contracting with liquefied natural gas exporters to receive cargoes for re-gasification to meet contracted commitments to utilities. A BB+-rated hybrid perpetual bond (7.5%) issued by The Goldman Sachs Group Inc. was also added to the Underlying Fund. These securities reset to five-year swaps plus 315.6 bps, which we believe will cause them to be redeemed early.

A holding in General Electric Co. was eliminated from the Underlying Fund. The company spun off its health care division in January 2023, which triggered significant debt repayment. The preferred shares were no longer required in the capital structure and very expensive to maintain. As such, the company announced the partial redemption of 54% of the issue in February, and the remainder was redeemed in mid-September of this year. We sold positions in higher-priced bonds, including the Canadian-dollar-denominated bonds of CES Energy Solutions Corp. (6.375% due 2024), due to relative value concerns. The proceeds were redeployed into higher-yield, lower-priced and longer-duration opportunities.

Overall, the Fund outperformed its benchmark for the period.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

High borrowing costs impact each high-yield bond issuer differently. Many companies have a combination of fixed-rate and floating-rate debt and are already being affected. High-yield bond coupon rates will be higher going forward, but it will be gradual as many issuers took advantage of very low interest rates to refinance debt and extend maturities in 2021. Nonetheless, this is a market that is more sensitive than not to economic growth.

Management Report of Fund Performance for the period/year ended September 30, 2023

Various surveys point to an increasing expectation that global inflation can be tamed without a significant contraction in world economic growth. This would be the so-called economic “soft landing,” even if it means (in our interpretation) one or two quarters of slightly negative year-over-year growth. This would keep yields higher for longer, but probably also broadly support valuations on riskier assets. We have aligned the Underlying Fund with market leaders and companies intent on debt reduction. In doing so, we have upgraded the credit quality and increased the interest rate sensitivity of the Underlying Fund.

(1) This information is derived from the Fund's semi-annual and annual financial statements.

(2) Management expense ratio is calculated based on expenses charged to the Fund (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets for the period/year, including the Fund's proportionate share of any underlying fund(s) expenses, if applicable. The Effective HST tax rate is calculated using the attribution percentage for each province based on shareholder residency and can be different from 13%.

(3) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period/year, including the Fund's proportionate share of such expenses of any underlying fund(s), if applicable.

(4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the fiscal period/year. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period/year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period/year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period/year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a higher turnover rate and the performance of a Fund. Portfolio turnover rate is calculated by dividing the lesser of the cost of purchases and the proceeds of sales of portfolio securities for the period/year, and excluding cash and short-term investments maturing in less than one year, and before assets acquired from a merger, if applicable, by the average of the monthly fair value of investments during the period/year.

(5) This information is provided for the period(s)/year(s) ended September 30, 2023 and March 31.
