RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Fund's net assets decreased by $1,245.3 million to $5,157.5 million from March 31, 2022 to September 30, 2022. The Fund had net redemptions of $467.2 million during the period. The portfolio's performance decreased assets by $588.7 million. The Fund paid distributions totalling $189.4 million. Series A units returned -9.8% after fees and expenses for the six-month period ended September 30, 2022. Over the same time period, the Fund's benchmarks returned -12.0% and -5.2%, respectively. The benchmarks are a combination of the ICE BofA U.S. High Yield Total Return Index - 40%, the MSCI World Core Real Estate Total Return Index - 20%, the MSCI World Core Infrastructure Total Return Index - 20% and the S&P/TSX Composite High Dividend Total Return Index - 20% (the Blended Benchmarks) and the FTSE Canada Universe Bond Total Return Index (the Benchmark or the Index).

The performance of the Fund's other Series is substantially similar to that of Series A units, except for differences in the structure of fees and expenses. For the returns of the Fund's other Series, please refer to the "Past Performance" section.

Global inflation proved much more persistent than investors and central bankers had forecasted, requiring faster and more aggressive interest rate increases. As a result, government bond yields rose significantly, impacting all other asset classes. Tightening financial conditions also increased the risk of recession. Corporate earnings and real estate prices adjusted lower and high-yield bond spreads moved wider to compensate for this uncertainty.

The Fund outperformed the ICE BofA U.S. High Yield Total Return Index, the MSCI World Core Real Estate Total Return Index, the MSCI World Core Infrastructure Total Return Index and the S&P/TSX Composite High Dividend Total Return Index and underperformed the FTSE Canada Universe Bond Total Return Index for the period. Security selection contributed to the Fund's performance, particularly in the real estate sector. An overweight allocation to energy midstream companies also contributed to performance. Floating rate airline loan positions secured by loyalty programs, such as Delta Air Lines Inc.'s Delta SkyMiles term loan and American Airlines Group Inc.'s American AAdvantage term loan, contributed to the Fund's performance. These holdings held their value as fixed-rate securities sold off with the move in government bond yields. A holding in Cheniere Energy Inc. was another contributor to performance. The company's share price outperformed as strong natural gas fundamentals boosted its current earnings and expectations of profitable future investments. This also allowed the company to update its capital allocation plan to provide higher dividends, buybacks, investment and debt paydown.

The Fund was partially unhedged on the U.S. dollar, which boosted total performance but detracted from relative performance. Credit Suisse Group AG detracted from performance as deterioration in its stock price, losses in the investment bank and a pending strategic review pushed down the price of its Additional Tier 1 (AT1) securities. However, we believe the company's liquidity and asset value remain very good. Vonovia SE, the largest apartment landlord in Germany, was another notable detractor from the Fund's performance. The stock was weak as interest rates rose. Its above-average debt level also weighed on the stock. Ongoing uncertainty in Europe owing to the Ukraine conflict also impacted investor sentiment. The company has announced planned assets sales to help lower its debt.

We added new institutional preferred shares issued by Bank of Montreal, The Bank of Nova Scotia and Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce to the Fund. These are non-exchange-traded, $1000 par equivalent securities with coupons in excess of 7%. We added a holding in a 10-year Government of Canada bond to the Fund, as we believe it may provide diversification going forward given that yields have risen.

We sold our long-term private equity stake in Sporting Life Group Ltd. capitalizing on a high valuation as a result of pandemic-boosted earnings on a trailing 12-month basis. Rockpoint Gas Storage Canada Ltd. 7.0% Mar. 31, 2023 was eliminated from the Fund following strong performance after the bond was called for early redemption.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

We believe that volatility is likely to remain high as both the Bank of Canada and the U.S. Federal Reserve Board continue to grapple with their policy responses to inflation and economic growth data as it is received. However, as both central banks near their terminal rates, our view is that the market should find some stability and riskier assets, including corporate credit, infrastructure and real estate equities, may experience valuation improvement as a result.

While second-quarter earnings were positive and corporate balance sheets remained in a better position than they were at the start of prior recessionary periods, we began to see acknowledgment of higher input costs and waning demand potentially weighing on margins going forward. As we await third-quarter earnings, we continue to position the Fund in companies that we believe are most resilient in the face of slowing growth. Additionally, the 20th Chinese National Congress of the Communist Party will start in mid-October, which could bring about a reduction in China's COVID-19 restrictions. This may help boost its sagging economy and global growth by increasing production and reducing further supply-chain bottlenecks and, ultimately, inflationary pressure on the price of goods.

(1) This information is derived from the Fund's semi-annual and annual financial statements.

(2) Management expense ratio is calculated based on expenses charged to the Fund (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets for the period, including the Fund's proportionate share of any underlying fund(s) expenses, if applicable. The Effective HST tax rate is calculated using the attribution percentage for each province based on unitholder residency and can be different from 13%.

(3) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period, including the Fund's proportionate share of such expenses of any underlying fund(s), if applicable.

(4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the fiscal period. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a higher turnover rate and the performance of a Fund. Portfolio turnover rate is calculated by dividing the lesser of the cost of purchases and the proceeds of sales of portfolio securities for the period, and excluding cash and short-term investments maturing in less than one year, and before assets acquired from a merger, if applicable, by the average of the monthly fair value of investments during the period.

(5) This information is provided for the period ended September 30, 2022 and the years ended March 31.
