RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Fund's net assets decreased by $29.2 million to $891.5 million from March 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024. The Fund had net redemptions of $108.3 million for the period. The portfolio's performance increased assets by $79.2 million. The Fund paid distributions totalling $0.1 million. Series A units returned 8.1% after fees and expenses for the six-month period ended September 30, 2024. Over the same time period, the Fund's benchmark returned 6.6%. The benchmark is the MSCI EAFE Index (NTR) (the Benchmark or the Index).

The performance of the Fund's other Series is substantially similar to that of Series A units, except for differences in the structure of fees and expenses. For the returns of the Fund's other Series, please refer to the "Past Performance" section.

International equities experienced notable fluctuations during the period, influenced by several significant macroeconomic events. One of the primary factors affecting the market was ongoing geopolitical tensions, particularly in Europe and Asia.

In Europe, concerns about inflation remained prevalent, with central banks continuing to grapple with rising prices. Alongside efforts to manage inflation through interest rate adjustments, economic growth showed signs of slowing, particularly in the manufacturing sector.

In China, the government implemented stimulus measures to support economic growth amid a recovery from COVID-19 pandemic-related disruptions. However, mixed economic indicators and ongoing trade tensions with the United States and other developed market countries added to investor worries.

The Fund outperformed its benchmark during the period. Stock selection within the consumer discretionary, energy, health care, communication services and utilities sectors contributed to the Fund's performance. Top individual contributors to the Fund's performance included holdings in Alibaba Group Holding Ltd., Telefonaktiebolaget LM Ericsson and Indus Towers Ltd. Alibaba Group Holding Ltd.'s stock performed well, benefiting from China's stimulus measures aimed at revitalizing the country's economy. Telefonaktiebolaget LM Ericsson posted better-than-expected second-quarter 2024 results, despite a 7% decline in revenue. This decline was offset by a 5G licensing deal that boosted both the company's revenue and margins. One of Indus Towers Ltd.'s significant customers, Vodafone Idea Ltd., awarded new contracts for 4G and 5G deployment to various vendors, which should give Indus Towers Ltd. a boost. In addition, with its wider footprint compared to peers, Indus Towers Ltd. is expected to gain market share in new business.

Stock selection within the financials, consumer staples and information technology sectors detracted from the Fund's performance. An underweight allocation to the financials sector and overweight allocation to the information technology sector also detracted from the Fund's performance. The largest individual detractors from the Fund's performance were holdings in Worldline SA, STMicroelectronics NV and NICE Ltd. Worldline SA experienced slow growth in the first half of 2024 and encountered a volatile consumer spending environment, with noticeable softness across several European countries. The company's multiple profit warnings within a year prompted its board of directors to change the CEO, which introduced additional uncertainty and share price volatility. STMicroelectronics NV's shares were weak due to concerns around cyclical weakness in broad-based semiconductors and weakness in the electric vehicle market due to excess inventory and slower growth than expected. NICE Ltd. was affected by news that its CEO plans to step down at the end of the year. Increased competition from players like Microsoft Corp. also put some pressure on the company's performance.

We added to the Fund a new position in Trip.com Group Ltd. The company, despite an uncertain macroeconomic environment, is witnessing solid domestic travel demand and a rebound in outbound travel. Notably, the outbound segment is at least twice as profitable as the domestic business, suggesting significant upside potential in operating margins. As the company capitalizes on strong pent-up demand, its international business is becoming an increasingly important segment for future growth.

A holding in B&M European Value Retail SA was also added to the Fund during the period. The company's core U.K. business boasts an increasingly efficient supply chain and substantial growth potential. With new stores turning profitable and strong cash generation, we expect to see continued volume growth. Given these factors, the company's shares are currently undervalued compared to peers, presenting an attractive buying opportunity.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

Moderate global economic growth, declining inflation and central bank interest rate cuts have been supportive of global corporate profits. Given this backdrop, corporate earnings growth is expected to expand beyond the largest U.S. companies to international markets and to smaller- and mid-capitalization companies. Given the expected earnings growth convergence, areas such as Continental Europe, Japan and the United Kingdom look attractive given comparatively lower valuations than can be found in the United States. The Chinese equity market remains attractive on a valuation basis, but has been weighed down by weakness in its property market and depressed consumer confidence. The recent announcement of a coordinated effort to support economic growth was received positively by investors.

We believe that if a business is well managed, has a competitive advantage, is growing or holding its market share and is undervalued, it offers a superior future investment proposition. Currently, the Fund is tilted toward non-U.S.-domiciled businesses and to mid- and smaller-cap companies.

(1) This information is derived from the Fund's semi-annual and annual financial statements.

(2) Management expense ratio is calculated based on expenses charged to the Fund (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets for the period/year, including the Fund's proportionate share of any underlying fund(s) expenses, if applicable. The Effective HST tax rate is calculated using the attribution percentage for each province based on unitholder residency and can be different from 13%.

(3) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period/year, including the Fund's proportionate share of such expenses of any underlying fund(s), if applicable.

(4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the fiscal period/year. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period/year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period/year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period/year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a higher turnover rate and the performance of a Fund. Portfolio turnover rate is calculated by dividing the lesser of the cost of purchases and the proceeds of sales of portfolio securities for the period/year, and excluding cash and short-term investments maturing in less than one year, and before assets acquired from a merger, if applicable, by the average of the monthly fair value of investments during the period/year.

(5) This information is provided for the period(s)/year(s) ended September 30, 2024 and March 31.
