INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGIES

The investment objective of the CI Canadian Banks Covered Call Income Corporate Class (the Fund) is to provide securityholders with (i) regular distributions; (ii) the opportunity for capital appreciation; and (iii) lower overall volatility of portfolio returns than would be experienced by owning a portfolio of common shares of the Bank of Montreal, Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, National Bank of Canada, Royal Bank of Canada, The Bank of Nova Scotia and The Toronto-Dominion Bank (collectively, the Banks) directly.

To achieve its objective, the Fund invests all or substantially all of its assets in CI Canadian Banks Covered Call Income Class ETF (the Underlying ETF), which has the same portfolio adviser and objectives as the Fund.

For a complete discussion of the Fund's investment objective and strategies, please refer to the Fund's most recently filed simplified prospectus.

RISK

No changes affecting the overall level of risk associated with investing in the Fund were made during the period/year. The risks of the Fund remain as discussed in the Fund's most recently filed simplified prospectus or its amendments. The Manager reviews the risk rating for the Fund on an annual basis, at a minimum, based on the methodology mandated by the Canadian Securities Administrators to determine the risk level of the Fund. Any change to the risk rating made during the period/year was as a result of such review and was not a result of any change to the investment objective, strategies or management of the Fund.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Fund's net assets increased by $20.7 million to $23.4 million from March 31, 2023 to March 31, 2024. The Fund had net sales of $19.5 million during the year. The portfolio's performance increased assets by $2.5 million. The Fund paid distributions totalling $1.3 million. Series A units returned 9.9% after fees and expenses for the one-year period ended March 31, 2024. Over the same time period, the Fund's benchmark returned 12.8%. The benchmark is the S&P/TSX Equal Weight Diversified Banks Total Return Index (the Benchmark or the Index).

The performance of the Fund's other Series is substantially similar to that of Series A shares, except for differences in the structure of fees and expenses. For the returns of the Fund's other Series, please refer to the "Past Performance" section.

The following commentary pertains to the results of operations of the CI Canadian Banks Covered Call Income Class ETF (the Underlying Fund).

During the year, central banks continued to tighten monetary policy to combat inflation. The Bank of Canada (BoC) raised its overnight rate by 50 basis points (bps) to 5.00%. The U.S. Federal Reserve Board (Fed) raised the federal funds rate by 75 bps to 5.50%. Inflation in Canada dropped from 5.2% to 2.8%. The United States showed a similar trajectory, with inflation down to 3.2% from 6.0%. Yield curves remained inverted, meaning yields on shorter-term bonds were higher than those on longer-term bonds.

Global stock markets exhibited varied performances with significant events influencing different sectors and regions. Overall, the global equity landscape was characterized by its resilience in the face of lingering economic uncertainties and sector-specific dynamics. Investors continued to navigate the complexities of higher interest rates, inflationary pressures, and geopolitical issues that influenced market sentiment and investment strategies.

U.S. equity markets fluctuated due to ongoing economic concerns, including inflation and interest rates. Mega-capitalization information technology companies generated very strong gains. European stocks benefited from a rebound in economic activity, having been among the first to decline earlier in the year. Asian equity markets were impacted by varying economic recovery rates across the region. Chinese equities responded to government stimulus, and Japan's equity market reacted to monetary normalization efforts by the Bank of Japan, producing strong returns.

The Fund underperformed its benchmark for the year.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

Despite a stronger-than-expected economy over the last year, economic conditions have begun to moderate. The Canadian economy has so far escaped recession, but we believe leading indicators, rising unemployment, and consumers stressed by higher interest rates and inflation pose a risk to economic growth in 2024. The BoC has indicated that it will likely start cutting interest rates in mid-2024, coincident with the expected timing of the Fed's interest rate cuts. Market participants anticipate at least two interest rate cuts in 2024. Given the trend in inflation and vulnerabilities in the economy, we expect that inflation could continue to come in lower than expected. Over the next several months, we believe vulnerabilities among Canadian households may necessitate the BoC cutting interest rates more quickly than anticipated.

(1) This information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements.

(2) Management expense ratio is calculated based on expenses charged to the Fund (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets for the period/year, including the Fund's proportionate share of any underlying fund(s) expenses, if applicable. The Effective HST tax rate is calculated using the attribution percentage for each province based on shareholder residency and can be different from 13%.

(3) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period/year, including the Fund's proportionate share of such expenses of any underlying fund(s), if applicable.

(4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the fiscal period/year. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period/year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period/year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period/year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a higher turnover rate and the performance of a Fund. Portfolio turnover rate is calculated by dividing the lesser of the cost of purchases and the proceeds of sales of portfolio securities for the period/year, and excluding cash and short-term investments maturing in less than one year, and before assets acquired from a merger, if applicable, by the average of the monthly fair value of investments during the period/year.
