INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGIES

The objective of the CI Global Alpha Innovators Corporate Class (the Fund) is to obtain maximum long-term capital growth. It invests primarily in equity and equity-related securities of companies around the world that have developed or are developing technological products, processes or services. This includes companies that provide goods and services to these companies and companies that the portfolio advisor believes would benefit from advancements and improvements in technology.

The portfolio advisor identifies the regions and companies that it believes offer potential for strong growth by analyzing the global economy and industries. The portfolio advisor uses techniques such as fundamental analysis to assess growth potential. This means evaluating the financial condition and management of a company, its industry, and the overall economy. The portfolio advisor analyzes financial data, assesses the quality of management, and conducts company interviews.

For a complete discussion of the Fund's investment objective and strategies, please refer to the Fund's most recently filed simplified prospectus.

RISK

The Manager reviews the risk rating for the Fund on an annual basis, at a minimum, based on the methodology mandated by the Canadian Securities Administrators to determine the risk level of the Fund. Any change to the risk rating made during the period/year was as a result of such review and was not a result of any change to the investment objective, strategies or management of the Fund.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Fund's net assets increased by $234.4 million to $1,017.9 million from March 31, 2023 to March 31, 2024. The Fund had net redemptions of $145.2 million during the year. The portfolio's performance increased assets by $379.6 million. Series A shares returned 52.1% after fees and expenses for the one-year period ended March 31, 2024. Over the same time period, the Fund's benchmark returned 40.8%. The benchmark is the MSCI ACWI Information Technology Total Return Index (the Benchmark or the Index).

The performance of the Fund's other Series is substantially similar to that of Series A shares, except for differences in the structure of fees and expenses. For the returns of the Fund's other Series, please refer to the "Past Performance" section.

The expectation that central banks will be cutting interest rates in 2024 was supportive of equity markets during the latter part of the year. U.S. economic growth remained robust while core inflation tracked lower. Spending on the development of and enthusiasm around artificial intelligence (AI) remained strong, helping to boost equity returns.

The Fund outperformed its benchmark for the year. Security selection within the information technology sector contributed to the Fund's performance, as did exposure to the health care sector and cryptocurrencies. The largest individual contributor to the Fund's performance was a holding in NVIDIA Corp., which makes critical components for the deployment of AI. Other notable contributions came from semiconductor exposure through holdings in Advanced Micro Devices Inc. and Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Co. Ltd., for which AI spending drove performance. Cryptocurrency exposure, through Galaxy Digital Holdings Ltd. and CI Galaxy Bitcoin ETF, also contributed to the Fund's performance as the price of cryptocurrencies continued to rise.

Security selection in the consumer discretionary and communication services sectors detracted from the Fund's performance. We use derivatives (put options) as a protective hedge against risk in the Fund, which detracted from performance. Top individual detractors from the Fund's performance were holdings in Adobe Inc., Roblox Corp., ON Semiconductor Corp., Apple Inc. and Aptiv PLC. Adobe Inc.'s stock declined after the company issued 2024 forecasts that disappointed investors. Roblox Corp. posted solid results, but the surprise resignation of its Chief Technology Officer raised investor concerns. ON Semiconductor Corp. was negatively affected by slowing electric vehicle sales. A challenged sales environment for iPhones in China caused underperformance in Apple Inc.'s shares. The general slowdown in automotive sales impacted parts providers, including Aptiv PLC, which provides components for driver-assist technology.

We introduced new positions in CrowdStrike Holdings Inc. and Viking Therapeutics Inc. and increased existing holdings in Apple Inc., Broadcom Inc. and Coveo Solutions Inc. Holdings in Aptiv PLC, Palo Alto Networks Inc. and Edwards Lifesciences Corp. were eliminated, while positions in Advanced Micro Devices Inc., Galaxy Digital Holdings Ltd. and Kinaxis Inc. were trimmed.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

We believe that spending on AI development and deployments should remain robust. AI is computer, storage and communications intensive, and thus, has broader ramifications for various information technology providers. We will maintain a substantial exposure to companies operating in this area.

CI Global Alpha Innovators Corporate Class

Management Report of Fund Performance for the period/year ended March 31, 2024

Broadly speaking, we view risks and opportunities as being in balance. Equity markets moved higher through the first quarter of 2024, continuing a strong run. The potential for interest rate cuts is positive for equities but needs to be balanced with the risk of economic slowdowns. Further, equities are valued near historic averages, with higher valuations associated with AI-centric companies, and therefore, the equity market seems rationally priced. There are pockets of opportunity as well as the risk of a correction in equity stock prices, given recent moves. Thus, we will continue to focus on self-funding growth and work to mitigate the Fund's risk through the use of derivatives.

Risk rating

Effective July 13, 2023, the risk rating for the Fund changed from "Medium-to-High" to "High". This change is the result of an annual review to comply with the methodology mandated by the Canadian Securities Administrators and is not the result of any changes to investment objective, strategies or management of the Fund.

(1) This information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements.

(2) Management expense ratio is calculated based on expenses charged to the Fund (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets for the period/year, including the Fund's proportionate share of any underlying fund(s) expenses, if applicable. The Effective HST tax rate is calculated using the attribution percentage for each province based on shareholder residency and can be different from 13%.

(3) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period/year, including the Fund's proportionate share of such expenses of any underlying fund(s), if applicable.

(4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the fiscal period/year. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period/year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period/year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period/year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a higher turnover rate and the performance of a Fund. Portfolio turnover rate is calculated by dividing the lesser of the cost of purchases and the proceeds of sales of portfolio securities for the period/year, and excluding cash and short-term investments maturing in less than one year, and before assets acquired from a merger, if applicable, by the average of the monthly fair value of investments during the period/year.

(5) This information is provided for the period(s)/year(s) ended March 31.

(6) Per shares amounts are presented in U.S. dollars.
