INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGIES

The investment objective of the CI Global Bond Corporate Class (the Fund) is to obtain long-term total return. It invests in units of the CI Global Bond Fund (the Underlying Fund). When we determine that it is cost-efficient for shareholders to do so, the Fund will instead invest directly in a portfolio of securities.

In order to achieve the investment objective of the Fund, the portfolio advisor of the Underlying Fund seeks to select securities that it believes have fundamental value that is not reflected in their credit rating and yield. The portfolio advisor uses techniques such as fundamental analysis to assess growth potential. This means evaluating the financial condition and management of an issuer, its industry, and the overall economy. The portfolio advisor analyzes financial data, assesses the quality of management, and conducts company interviews. The portfolio advisor also analyzes the economies of the countries and regions, expected changes in interest rates, the yield of various terms to maturity and the issuer's credit rating and risk.

The portfolio advisor analyzes whether companies can generate enough cash to service debt and reinvest into their business over the long-term.

The Underlying Fund may use derivatives, but only as permitted by securities regulations. In order to earn additional income, it may enter into securities lending transactions, repurchase transactions and reverse repurchase transactions, to the extent permitted by securities regulations.

The Underlying Fund has received permission from securities regulatory authorities to invest and hold up to 35% of its assets in securities issued or guaranteed by any government or its agency or by certain supranational agencies as long as these securities meet or exceed minimum credit ratings. There is no limit on how much the Underlying Fund can invest in securities issued or guaranteed by Canadian federal or provincial governments or their agencies, or by the U.S. government or its agencies.

For a complete discussion of the Fund's and the Underlying Fund's respective investment objective and strategies, please refer to the Fund's and the Underlying Fund's most recently filed simplified prospectus.

RISK

No changes affecting the overall level of risk associated with investing in the Fund were made during the period/year. The risks of the Fund remain as discussed in the Fund's most recently filed simplified prospectus or its amendments. The Manager reviews the risk rating for the Fund on an annual basis, at a minimum, based on the methodology mandated by the Canadian Securities Administrators to determine the risk level of the Fund. Any change to the risk rating made during the period/year was as a result of such review and was not a result of any change to the investment objective, strategies or management of the Fund.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Fund's net assets decreased by $2.2 million to $12.4 million from March 31, 2023 to March 31, 2024. The Fund had net redemptions of $2.3 million during the year. The portfolio's performance increased assets by $0.2 million. The Fund paid distributions totalling $0.1 million. Series A shares returned 1.3% after fees and expenses for the one-year period ended March 31, 2024. Over the same time period, the Fund's benchmark returned 0.6%. The benchmark is the Bloomberg Global Aggregate Bond Total Return Index (50% CAD-Hedged) (the Benchmark or the Index).

The performance of the Fund's other Series is substantially similar to that of Series A shares, except for differences in the structure of fees and expenses. For the returns of the Fund's other Series, please refer to the "Past Performance" section.

The following commentary pertains to the results of operations of the CI Global Bond Fund (the Underlying Fund).

Inflation concerns pushed central banks to continue raising policy rates through the first half of 2023. Towards the end of 2023, inflation had begun to moderate, with manufacturing sector activity contracting modestly and labour markets loosening somewhat. Despite the slowing economic backdrop, developed market bond yields rose substantially, peaking in early October 2023 amid concerns that strong growth in the United States could fuel a reacceleration of inflation. Credit spreads (the difference in yield between corporate and government bonds) narrowed as markets navigated through the last stages of global interest rate increases against a growth backdrop that appeared poised to avoid recession.

Encouraged by moderating inflation, the U.S. Federal Reserve Board (Fed) shifted its policy stance in December 2023. This extended the market rebound and brought forward the anticipated timing of the Fed's first interest rate cuts, then priced in for March 2024.

In the first quarter of 2024, however, markets reduced their expectations for interest rate cuts by the Fed in 2024. Disinflation proceeded more rapidly in some geographies outside of the United States, including Canada and the eurozone, which increased the prospect for global monetary policy divergence from the Fed. In contrast, the Bank of Japan (BoJ) raised interest rates for the first time since 2007, officially exiting the negative interest rate policy that had been introduced in 2016.

CI Global Bond Corporate Class

Management Report of Fund Performance for the period/year ended March 31, 2024

The Underlying Fund outperformed its benchmark. Collectively, yield curve, spread and currency management contributed to performance. The Underlying Fund's underweight duration (lower sensitivity to interest rates) contributed to performance as interest rates increased. An overweight allocation to corporate bonds and emerging market sovereign bonds contributed to performance, as did underweight exposure to the Japanese yen, which depreciated against the Canadian dollar. The largest individual contributors to performance included U.S. Treasury 0.75% Nov. 15, 2024 and Government of Canada 2.75% Aug. 1, 2024. Both holdings had short-term maturities and benefited from the rise in interest rates. French Republic 0.0% Nov. 25, 2030 was another contributor to performance as its price appreciated. Federal Republic of Nigeria 6.125% Sep. 28, 2028 contributed to performance as emerging market spreads narrowed.

Overweight durations in U.S. and Canadian government bonds detracted from the Underlying Fund's performance as yields rose. Several Government of Japan bond holdings detracted from performance as the yen depreciated against the Canadian dollar. Short-term interest rates in Japan remained close to zero while yields in the United States and Canada rose. The largest individual detractors from performance included Government of Japan 0.1% Mar. 20, 2031; 0.1% Dec. 20, 2030; 0.7% Dec. 20, 2051; and 0.1% Jun. 20, 2031.

As yields rose during the year, we increased the Underlying Fund's duration at the five-year point of the yield curve, taking profit on an underweight stance in this area. We added new holdings in U.S. Treasury 3.625% May 31, 2028 and Federal Republic of Germany 2.1% Apr. 12, 2029. We also added Kingdom of Spain 3.5% May 31, 2029. Disinflation in Europe supported the potential for a cautious rate cutting cycle by the European Central Bank, which would favour maturities in the five-year sector.

We eliminated a holding in Republic of Italy 0.5% Feb. 1, 2026 to take profits. Government of Japan 0.1% Jun. 20, 2031 was sold and Government of Japan 0.1% Mar. 20, 2031 was trimmed to reduce duration exposure to Japanese bonds. We expect the BoJ to continue policy normalization efforts and, therefore, expect upward pressure on longer-maturity Japanese government bond yields until policy normalization is complete.

Overall, the Fund outperformed its benchmark for the year.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

As interest rates trended higher and interest rate increases came to an end, the Underlying Fund's interest rate exposure across various markets was increased. However, the Underlying Fund continues to have an underweight duration, favouring exposures in the United States, Canada and Australia over European, U.K. and Japanese government bonds.

The recent disinflationary trend has been led mainly by falling goods and energy prices, while underlying inflation, particularly relating to services, has been more persistent. We believe this backdrop raises the risk of central banks holding interest rates at current levels for longer than markets are anticipating.

The Underlying Fund continues to hold overweight allocations to corporate bonds and emerging market sovereign bonds given our positive outlook on U.S. growth and benign outlook for global growth.

Related Fund Trading

Related fund trading occurs when a Fund purchases or sells units/shares of another Fund managed by the Manager. During the period/year ended March 31, 2024, the Fund engaged in related fund trading or held position(s) in related fund(s) at the end of the period/year.

Independent Review Committee

The Manager, in respect of the Fund, received the following standing instructions from the Independent Review Committee (IRC) with respect to related party transactions:

The applicable standing instructions require, amongst others, that related party transactions be conducted in accordance with the Manager's policies and procedures and applicable law and that the Manager reports related party transactions periodically to the IRC and advise the IRC of any material breach of such policies. The Manager's policies and procedures require that investment decisions in respect of related party transactions (a) are free from any influence by an entity related to the Manager and without taking into account any consideration relevant to an entity related to the Manager; (b) represent the business judgment of the Manager, uninfluenced by considerations other than the best interests of the Fund; (c) do not exceed the limitations of the applicable legislation; and (d) achieve a fair and reasonable result for the Fund.

Except as otherwise noted above under Related Party Transactions section, the Fund was not a party to any related party transactions during the period/year ended March 31, 2024. If the Fund invested in related party transactions, it relied on the IRC's standing instructions regarding related party transactions during this reporting period/year.

(1) This information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements.

(2) Net assets per share and dividends per share are based on the actual number of shares outstanding for the relevant Series/Class at the relevant time. The increase (decrease) in net assets from operations per share is based on the weighted average number of shares outstanding for the relevant Series/Class over the fiscal period/year.

(3) Dividends are automatically reinvested in additional shares of the Fund.

(4) This information is provided for the period(s)/year(s) ended March 31.

(1) This information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements.

(2) Management expense ratio is calculated based on expenses charged to the Fund (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets for the period/year, including the Fund's proportionate share of any underlying fund(s) expenses, if applicable. The Effective HST tax rate is calculated using the attribution percentage for each province based on shareholder residency and can be different from 13%.

(3) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period/year, including the Fund's proportionate share of such expenses of any underlying fund(s), if applicable.

(4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the fiscal period/year. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period/year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period/year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period/year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a higher turnover rate and the performance of a Fund. Portfolio turnover rate is calculated by dividing the lesser of the cost of purchases and the proceeds of sales of portfolio securities for the period/year, and excluding cash and short-term investments maturing in less than one year, and before assets acquired from a merger, if applicable, by the average of the monthly fair value of investments during the period/year.

(5) This information is provided for the period(s)/year(s) ended March 31.

PAST PERFORMANCE

This section describes how the Fund has performed in the past. Remember, past returns do not indicate how the Fund will perform in the future. The information shown assumes that dividends made by the Fund in the period(s)/year(s) shown were reinvested in additional shares of the Fund or relevant Series/Classes of the Fund, as applicable. In addition, the information does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or other optional charges that would have reduced returns or performance.

Year-by-Year Returns

The following chart/charts shows/show the Fund's annual performance for each of the period(s)/year(s) shown and illustrates/illustrate how the Fund's performance has changed from period/year to period/year. In percentage terms, the chart/charts shows/show how much an investment made on the first day of each financial period/year would have grown or decreased by the last day of each financial period/year, except where noted.

Annual Compound Returns

The following table shows the Fund's annual compound returns for each year indicated, compared to the Bloomberg Global Aggregate Bond Total Return Index (50% CAD-Hedged).

The Bloomberg Global Aggregate Bond Index provides a broad-based measure of the global investment grade fixed-rate debt markets. The Index contains three major components: the U.S. Aggregate Index (USD 300 million), the Pan-European Aggregate Index (EUR 300 million) and the Asian-Pacific Aggregate Index (JPY 35 billion). The Index includes Global Treasury, Eurodollar, Euro-Yen, Canadian and Investment Grade 144A index-eligible securities not already included in the three regional aggregate indices.

A discussion of the performance of the Fund as compared to the benchmark is found in the Results of Operations section of this report.

A NOTE ON FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report may contain forward-looking statements about the Fund, its future performance, strategies or prospects, and possible future Fund action. The words "may," "could," "should," "would," "suspect," "outlook," "believe," "plan," "anticipate," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "forecast," "objective," and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements.

Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. Forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both about the Fund and general economic factors, so it is possible that predictions, forecasts, projections and other forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you not to place undue reliance on these statements as a number of important factors could cause actual events or results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in any forward-looking statement made by the Fund. These factors include, but are not limited to, general economic, political and market factors in Canada, the United States and internationally, interest and foreign exchanges rates, global equity and capital markets, business competition, technological changes, changes in laws and regulations, judicial or regulatory judgments, legal proceedings and catastrophic events.

The above list of important factors that may affect future results is not exhaustive. Before making any investment decisions, we encourage you to consider these and other factors carefully. All opinions contained in forward-looking statements are subject to change without notice and are provided in good faith but without legal responsibility.
