INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGIES

The investment objective of Sentry U.S. Equity Income Currency Neutral Private Pool Class (the Fund) is to provide capital growth and income over the long-term, while minimizing the Fund's exposure to foreign currency fluctuations against the Canadian dollar, by investing substantially all of its assets in securities of Sentry U.S. Equity Income Private Trust (the Underlying Fund) and using derivatives to hedge against fluctuations in the foreign currency exposure of the portfolio.

The Fund will invest primarily in securities of the Underlying Fund and will seek to hedge substantially all of its foreign currency exposure against the Canadian dollar by investing in derivatives to hedge against exposure to foreign currencies. As a result of its use of derivatives, the Fund will not generally suffer or benefit from any fluctuations in the value of foreign currencies (such as the U.S. dollar) against the Canadian dollar.

The investment objective of the Underlying Fund is to provide capital growth and income over the long-term by investing primarily in dividend-paying U.S. equity securities. The Underlying Fund uses a fundamental, bottom-up approach to investing. The Underlying Fund may also invest in non-dividend-paying securities and will invest at least 90% of the assets of the Fund in the United States.

For a complete discussion of the Fund's and the Underlying Fund's respective investment objective and strategies, please refer to the Fund's and the Underlying Fund's most recently filed simplified prospectus.

RISK

No changes affecting the overall level of risk associated with investing in the Fund were made during the year. The risks of the Fund remain as discussed in the Fund's most recently filed simplified prospectus or its amendments. The Manager reviews the risk rating for the Fund on an annual basis, at a minimum, based on the methodology mandated by the Canadian Securities Administrators to determine the risk level of the Fund. Any change to the risk rating made during the year was as a result of such review and was not a result of any change to the investment objective, strategies or management of the Fund.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Fund's net assets increased by $0.2 million to $2.1 million from March 31, 2020 to March 31, 2021. The Fund had net redemptions of $0.4 million during the year. The portfolio's performance increased assets by $0.6 million. Series A shares returned 44.4% after fees and expenses for the one-year period ended March 31, 2021. Over the same time period, the Fund's benchmark returned 39.6%. The benchmark is the S&P 500 Total Return Index (the Benchmark or the Index).

The performance of the Fund's other Series is substantially similar to that of Series A shares, except for differences in the structure of fees and expenses. For the returns of the Fund's other Series, please refer to the "Past Performance" section.

The following commentary pertains to the results of operations of the Sentry U.S. Equity Income Private Trust (the Underlying Fund).

Second and third waves of COVID-19 infection during the year further disrupted economic activity and global supply chains. Significant monetary and fiscal policy interventions allowed for many companies that were directly affected by the pandemic to remain solvent. A move lower in interest rates saw long-term assets, such as money-losing information technology companies, dramatically outperform more traditional value-oriented stocks. Stay-at-home orders coupled with stimulus cheques created a large increase in retail trader activity and levels of margin borrowing. These funds flowed disproportionately toward certain businesses popularized on internet chat forums.

The Underlying Fund outperformed its benchmark for the year. Security selection in the health care sector contributed to performance largely as a result of holdings that benefited from vaccine testing and a recovery in elective procedures. The Underlying Fund's allocation to consumer staples contributed to performance as consumers shifted their spending habits from discretionary purchases to staples during the pandemic. Top individual contributors to the Underlying Fund's performance included Alphabet Inc. and Facebook Inc. Alphabet Inc. benefited from increased demand for cloud computing and remote work tools, as well as a recovery in advertising spend. Facebook Inc. saw international user growth and higher usage because of lockdown restrictions.

Exposure to the materials sector detracted from the Underlying Fund's performance as oil and gold performance lagged. Security selection within information technology also detracted from the Fund's performance as investors favoured early-stage, high-growth companies. The largest individual detractors from the Underlying Fund's performance were BBTV Holdings Inc. and Huntington Ingalls Industries Inc. BBTV Holdings Inc. underperformed largely because its business model is currently not well understood. We will maintain the position as we have confidence that, over time, the true economics of the business will show through and lead to share price appreciation. Huntington Ingalls' manufacturing capabilities were impacted by COVID-19 lockdown restrictions.

A new position in McDonald's Corp., which franchises and operates fast-food restaurants, was added to the Underlying Fund. We believe the company stands to benefit from an economic re-opening, as evidenced by strong performance in re-opened markets. We also believe that in the long term, the company should be able to grow its market share as many independent locations will have closed during the pandemic. An existing holding in Microsoft Corp. was increased. We believe that the impacts of working from home have structurally increased demand for the company's collaborative tools and cloud computing. Huntington Ingalls was eliminated because of repeated COVID-19 outbreaks among manufacturing staff and the potential for this to persist. Alphabet was trimmed to take profits.

The Fund outperformed its benchmark for the year.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

We believe that improving global vaccination rates should allow regions to return to normal over the coming year. Due to differing vaccination rates, we expect the recovery to be uneven, with certain regions recovering faster than others. Aggressive cost-cutting actions should help at firms that were heavily affected by the pandemic, allowing for high incremental margins when revenues return to normalized levels. This has led us to position the Underlying Fund with overweight positions in businesses where we believe the market is too negative on normalized earnings power.

We believe that the pandemic has created structural changes to how society lives and works. As such, we are actively avoiding businesses that we believe are unlikely to recover to 2019 levels of profitability, while seeking to own more of businesses that should benefit from pent-up consumer demand.

Aggressive monetary stimulus, supply chain issues, high consumer saving rates and pent-up demand for certain goods and services are likely to lead to inflation in the near term. We expect the U.S. Federal Reserve and Bank of Canada to remain in an accommodative stance as policy makers have signalled their belief that inflation will prove transitory. It is our view that inflation represents a risk and, as a result, we are focused on owning businesses with the ability to pass on cost increases to customers.

Effective April 3, 2020, Stuart Hensman resigned as a member of the Independent Review Committee (IRC) of CI Funds and effective April 3, 2020, Donna Toth was appointed as a member of the IRC.

(1) This information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements.

(2) Management expense ratio is calculated based on expenses charged to the Fund (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets for the year, including the Fund's proportionate share of any underlying fund(s) expenses, if applicable. The Effective HST tax rate is calculated using the attribution percentage for each province based on shareholder residency and can be different from 13%.

(3) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the year, including the Fund's proportionate share of such expenses of any underlying fund(s), if applicable.

(4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the fiscal year. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a higher turnover rate and the performance of a Fund. Portfolio turnover rate is calculated by dividing the lesser of the cost of purchases and the proceeds of sales of portfolio securities for the year, and excluding cash and short-term investments maturing in less than one year, and before assets acquired from a merger, if applicable, by the average of the monthly fair value of investments during the year.
