Before you invest in any fund, consider how the fund would work with your other investments and your tolerance for risk.

Notice: On June 1, 2026, CI Global Asset Management became the manager and portfolio manager of the Fund, following the sale of management agreements relating to Invesco Canada Ltd.'s Canadian fund business to CI Global Asset Management.

New purchases under the Deferred Sales Charge option, Low Load option or Lower Load 4 option are no longer permitted. If you currently hold shares or units of a CI Global Asset Management fund under any of these purchase options, you may make a permitted switch to the Fund under the same purchase option. In such circumstances, you will maintain the redemption fee schedule and rates outlined in the simplified prospectus offered in the year those other Fund shares or units were originally purchased.

How risky is it?

The value of the Fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge the risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility."

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

CI Global Asset Management has rated the volatility of this Fund as Low to medium.

This rating is based on how much the Fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the Fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

Low	Low to medium	Medium	Medium to high	High

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the Fund's returns, see Part B: Specific Information About Each of the Funds Described in this Document section of the Fund's simplified prospectus.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds, this Fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

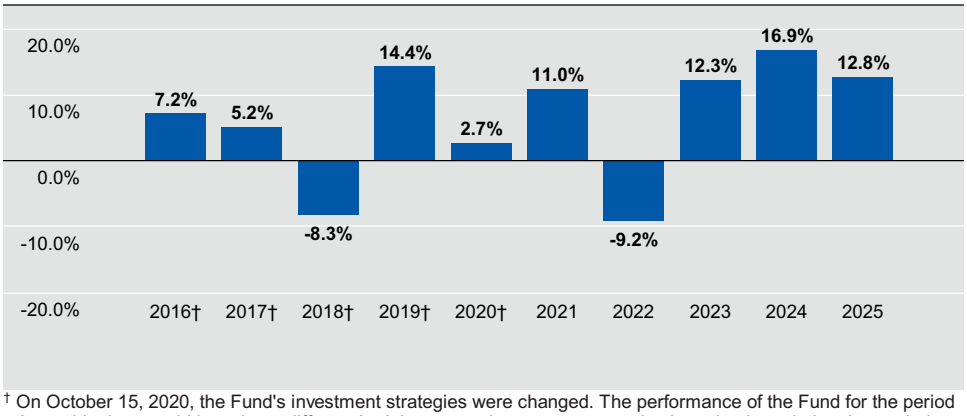
Invesco Canadian Premier Balanced Class - Series A

How has the Fund performed?

This section tells you how Series A shares of the Fund have performed over the past 10 years. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the Fund's returns.

Year-by-year returns

This chart shows how Series A shares of the Fund performed in each of the past 10 years. The Fund dropped in value in two of the 10 years. The range of returns and change from year to year can help you assess how risky the Fund has been in the past. It does not tell you how the Fund will perform in the future.



† On October 15, 2020, the Fund's investment strategies were changed. The performance of the Fund for the period prior to this date would have been different had the current investment strategies been in place during that period.

Best and worst three-month returns

This table shows the best and worst returns for the Series A shares of the Fund in a three-month period over the past 10 years. The best and worst three-month returns could be higher or lower in the future. Consider how much of a loss you could afford to take in a short period of time.

	Return	Three months ending	If you invested $1,000 at the beginning of the period
Best return	11.9%	June 30, 2020	Your investment would rise to $1,119
Worst return	-16.4%	March 31, 2020	Your investment would drop to $836

Average return

A person who invested $1,000 in Series A shares of the Fund 10 years ago now has $1,942. This works out to an annual compound return of 6.86%.

Who is this Fund for?

Investors who:

- Want a combination of the growth potential of equities and the stability of fixed-income investments
- Want a core Canadian balanced investment
- Are comfortable with low to medium risk

The Fund is not appropriate if you have a short-term investment horizon.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether you hold the fund in a registered plan, such as a registered retirement savings plan or a tax-free savings account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Series A shares of the Fund. The fees and expenses, including any commissions, can vary among series of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

Invesco Canadian Premier Balanced Class - Series A

1. Sales charges

You may pay a sales charge when you buy Series A shares of the Fund.

Sales charge option	What you pay		How it works
	In per cent (%)	In dollars ($)
Initial Sales Charge	0% to 5% of the amount you pay	$0 to $50 on every $1,000 you pay	■ You and your representative decide on the rate ■ The initial sales charge is deducted from the amount you pay. It goes to your representative's firm as a commission

2. Fund expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the Fund's returns.

As of March 31, 2026, the expenses of Series A were 2.52% of the value of this series. This equals $25.20 for every $1,000 invested.

	Annual rate (as a % of the Fund's value)
Management expense ratio (MER) This is the total of the Fund's management fee (which includes the trailing commission) and operating expenses. Invesco Canada Ltd. waived or absorbed some of this series' expenses. If it had not done so, the MER would have been higher.	2.49%
Trading expense ratio (TER) This is the Fund's trading costs.	0.03%
Fund expenses	2.52%

More about the trailing commission

The trailing commission is an ongoing commission. It is paid for as long as you own the Fund. It is for the services and advice that your representative and their firm provide to you. CI Global Asset Management pays the trailing commission to your representative's firm. It is paid from the Fund's management fee and is based on the value of your investment. The rate depends on the sales charge option you choose.

Sales charge option	Amount of trailing commission
	In per cent (%)	In dollars ($)
Initial Sales Charge	1.00% of the value of your investment each year	This equals $10.00 each year for every $1,000 invested.
Deferred Sales Charge	0.50%[1,3] of the value of your investment each year	This equals $5.00 each year for every $1,000 invested.
Low Load	1.00% of the value of your investment each year	This equals $10.00 each year for every $1,000 invested.
Lower Load 4	0.50%[2] of the value of your investment each year	This equals $5.00 each year for every $1,000 invested.

[1] 1.00% after seven years for assets purchased between August 11, 2010 and May 27, 2022. [2] 1.00% after four years. [3] For the Capped Deferred Sales Charge option, 0.75% for years one to six and 1.00% after six years.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you buy, hold, sell or switch Series A shares of the Fund.

Fee	What you pay
Short-term trading fee	If you redeem or switch within 30 days of purchase, CI Global Asset Management reserves the right to charge, on behalf of the Fund, a short-term trading fee of 2% on top of any other fees that may apply.
Switch fee	Your representative's firm may charge you a fee of up to 2% of the value of the shares you switch to another CI Global Asset Management fund. You and your representative negotiate the fee.

What if I change my mind?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual funds within two business days after you receive a simplified prospectus or Fund Facts document, or

- cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase.

In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase or, in some jurisdictions, claim damages if the simplified prospectus, Fund Facts document or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities legislation in your province or territory.

For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.
