Before you invest in any fund, you should consider how it works with your other investments and your tolerance for risk.

This fund is an alternative mutual fund. It has the ability to invest in asset classes or use investment strategies that are not permitted for conventional mutual funds. The specific strategies that differentiate this fund from conventional mutual funds include: increased use of derivatives for hedging and non-hedging purposes; increased ability to sell securities short; and the ability to borrow cash to use for investment purposes. While these strategies will be used in accordance with the fund's investment objectives and strategies, during certain market conditions they may accelerate the pace at which your investment decreases in value.

What does the fund invest in?

The fund's investment objective is to achieve capital appreciation and provide unitholders with attractive risk adjusted returns over an investment cycle. The fund may use leverage. The leverage will be created through the use of cash borrowings, short sales and derivative contracts. The fund's leverage must not exceed three times the fund's net asset value. How risky is it?

The value of the fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

The Manager has rated the volatility of this as low to medium.
Generally, the rating is based on how much the fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the fund's returns, see the "What is a Mutual Fund and What are the Risks of Investing in a Mutual Fund?" section of the fund's simplified prospectus.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds, this fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

Who is this fund for?
This fund may be suitable for you if you:
• are seeking capital appreciation and attractive risk adjusted returns over an investment cycle
• are investing for the medium and/or long term
• are seeking an investment which can utilize borrowing, short-selling, leverage and derivatives where appropriate to either maximize returns or mitigate negative returns
• can tolerate low to medium risk

A word about tax
In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws of where you live and whether you hold the fund in a registered plan, such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.
How much does it cost?
The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Series I securities of the fund. The fees and expenses — including any commissions — can vary among series of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

1. Sales charges
There are no sales charges applicable to your series of securities.

2. Fund expenses
You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the fund series' returns.

The fund series' expenses are made up of the performance fee, trading costs and Certain Fund Costs. Because this fund is new, its Certain Fund Costs and trading costs are not available.

The fund may pay the Manager a performance fee at the end of each year equal to 15% of the amount by which the net asset value per unit at the end of such year (before giving effect to any distributions by the fund since the High Water Mark (as defined in the prospectus) was determined, and adjusted to exclude the accrual of the performance fee during the year) exceeds the High Water Mark multiplied by one plus the Hurdle Rate (as defined in the prospectus), multiplied by the number of units of that series outstanding at the end of such year. If any units of the fund are redeemed prior to the end of a year, a performance fee may be payable on the redemption date in respect of each such units, as if the redemption date were the end of the year. Performance fees will be calculated and accrued for each series on a daily basis during each year.

More about trailing commission
The Manager does not pay a trailing commission on your series of securities out of the fund's management fee.

3. Other fees
You may have to pay other fees when you buy, hold, sell or switch securities of the fund.
